I went to the shop to buy a new computer.
We need a new computer at the club. A normal desktop computer, not a laptop. We need a mouse and a keyboard too. And we need a big screen. We don't need a memory stick, but the shop assistant gave me one. When you buy a computer, the shop gives you a free mobile. We don't need it at the club, but the children like it. It has a camera so you can send text messages with a photo.
